

Chinki's Birthday

Let's See

Look at the picture of the family. What are they doing?
How many members are there in your family? Say their names.

Chinki is celebrating her fifth birthday today. She is very happy. She is going to the market with her parents to bring food to share with everyone.

What can Chinki take from the kitchen for the party?

Chinki goes to the kitchen.

Sandwiches? Biscuits? Fruits?

Chinki has an idea! She asks her mother for help.

Mother brings out the flour, sugar and cocoa.

Then, Chinki brings butter and eggs from the fridge. She gets a big bowl and a wooden spoon.

Mother mixes the flour, sugar and cocoa in the bowl. Then, she adds butter and eggs.

Chinki's mother heats up the oven.

flour : a white powder made by crushing wheat

cocoa : a brown powder that is used for making chocolate, cakes and cookies

oven : a machine used for baking

Chinki pours the batter into a pan.

Her mother puts it in the oven to bake. It takes thirty minutes to bake.

While the cake is baked, Chinki helps her mother to clean up the kitchen.

She puts away the flour, sugar, cocoa and butter. She washes the big bowl and the wooden spoon.

DING!!!!

Chinki's mother takes the pan out of the oven. She sets it on the cooling rack. Chinki sniffs the air. It smells like chocolate!

What did Chinki make?

BROWNIES!

batter : a thick mixture sniffs : smells
brownies : thick soft flat cakes
